

FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE

SEPT 28, 1961

R1 33

LONDON, SEPT. 28. (REUTERS) THE DAILY SKETCH, UNDER THE TWO-WORD HEADLINE "GOOD RIDDANCE," SAID TODAY THAT THE DEPARTURE OF ALLEN DULLES FROM THE UNITED STATES CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY "SHOULD CAUSE NO TEARS.

"WHATEVER HE CONTRIBUTED TO THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES, OR THE WEST, BY HIS INTELLIGENCE GATHERING WAS MORE THAN OFFSET BY THE DAMAGE OF THE U-2 HIGH-SPY PLANE AND THE CUBAN FIASCO," THIS POPULAR DAILY DECLARED.

"ALLEN DULLES, LIKE HIS BROTHER BEFORE HIM, WENT TOO FAR."

JAB 0428